

The Section of Perinatal and Infant Psychiatry 2024 Conference

PERINATAL & INFANT PSYCHIATRY: NEW FRONTIERS & CLINICAL CHALLENGES

14 - 15 June 2024 • RACV Healesville Country Club and Resort

About the conference

The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists' (RANZCP) Section of Perinatal & Infant Psychiatry is pleased to present their 2024 conference focusing on the theme 'New Frontiers & Clinical Challenges'.

The conference will be held across one and a half days at the RACV Healesville Country Club & Resort in Healesville, Victoria, from Friday 14 June to Saturday 15 June 2024. There will be a welcome function on the evening of Friday 14 July.

The scientific program aims to explore latest developments and updates in the field of perinatal and infant psychiatry. A number of excellent speakers will present key findings from their work.

Delegate profile

The conference will be attended by up to 80 psychiatrists, psychologists, allied health professionals and other medical practitioners with an interest or expertise in the field of perinatal and infant psychiatry. Delegates may include those not working specifically in psychiatry but based within a multidisciplinary team with a strong interest in psychiatry.
